

GOOD FOR YOU

RANIERI OF FIREFLY GROUP NOMINATED FOR AWARD

Stacey Ranieri was nominated for the Women of Distinction Award by Rhonda Irons, president of Keep Martin Beautiful.

Ranieri's firm, The Firefly Group, provided almost $100,000 in donated services to nonprofit organizations throughout Martin County in the areas of marketing, public relations, strategic planning and special events coordination. Firefly's many contributions to the community focus primarily on children's issues and the environment.

Ranieri

Some of the many organizations that have benefited are Keep Martin Beautiful;

the Boys & Girls Clubs of Martin County; Tykes & Teens; Sustainable Martin Alliance; the Treasure Coast Children's Museum; and the Treasure Coast Wildlife Hospital. She also has served on the boards or has been a member of Stuart/Martin County Chamber; United Way; Treasure Coast Green Building Conference; Palm City Chamber; Florida Public Relations Association; Public Art Advisory Board; and LEADERShip Martin.

Five years ago, Ranieri launched The Firefly Group, a public relations and strategic planning firm based in Palm City. She serves on the board of the United Way and the Stuart Chamber of Commerce in addition to the work she does with Keep Martin Beautiful and Sustainable Martin Alliance.