YACHT, COUNTRY CLUB WINS GOLF PRO-AM

On May 6, golfers in both Amateur and Pro-Am team divisions teed off at the Jupiter Island Club for the annual Boys and Girls Clubs of Martin County Golf Challenge.

At the end of the day, it was the Pro-Am foursome from Yacht and Country Club that earned bragging rights for the next year.

Head golf professional at Yacht and Country Club Bob Erickson, along with Gordon Hannah, John Gantt, Morris Crady and Carlos Garcia-Velez, shot a low net score of 58 to win the Pro-Am title and a customized sterling silver trophy, donated by Loblolly Pines' Head Golf Professional, Rick Whitfield.

In the Amateur team division, the winning foursome comprised of Dan and Mary Gescheidle, William Blatch and the Rev. Glenford Hutchinson, shot an impressive low net score of 57.

The second place foursome of Amin and Julie Houry and John and Eddy Taylor, finished closely behind with a low net score of 59.

Spencer Taylor and Jane Witherwax were both winners of the Longest Drive contest on Hole No 1, while Erling Speer and Joe Dempsey won Closest to the Pin contests on Holes Nos. 6 and 12, respectively.

"I would like to thank all of our participants and local golf professionals, our sponsors for their continued support, Leigh Ford for his hard work on the committee, and Paul Emmi and the Jupiter Island Club staff for hosting us this year," said Anne McCormick, executive director of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Martin County.

Funds raised will be allocated for the developmental and character-building programs at all five branches of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Martin County.

The Clubs support thousands of children throughout Martin County, providing a positive place for kids to learn and thrive through a variety of educational, recreational, and cultural programs and activities.
