HARTMAN AUCTION GROUP

Reed Hartman, Owner of Hartman Auction Group

PALM CITY — Hartman Auction Group has announced its official launch to the community, with offices located at 4209 SW High Meadow Avenue in Palm City. As a fifth generation Martin County resident and third generation real estate agent, owner Ransom Reed Hartman is deeply rooted in Florida's real estate heritage and has garnered a reputation for integrity and expertise. Since 2005, Hartman has managed more than 50 commercial and residential auctions from income-producing commercial properties to multi-million dollar waterfront homes throughout Florida.

"Reed and I have collaborated on numerous occasions, and I have a great deal of respect for his depth of knowledge and credibility," commented Ken Martin, CCIM, Broker-Associate for SLC Commercial, Inc. "He not only manages the auction process with a keen sense of the current real estate market, but possesses rare skill in producing the best price outcome for our clients. I look forward to working with Reed on future properties.”

“Water Pointe Realty Group has always found Reed to be extremely professional and accommodating in his approach to client needs,” noted Dave Derrenbacker, Broker/Owner of Water Pointe Realty Group. “We’ve worked with him on several auctions, and each time his expertise in the industry has proved to be a resource for us.”

Reed Hartman is a member of the National Auctioneer’s Association (NAA) and the Florida Auctioneer’s Association and has earned a designation as Certified Estate Specialist (CES) offered by the NAA. He is actively involved in the Treasure Coast community and donates his time and skills as an auctioneer to numerous non-profit organizations including the American Cancer Society, Treasure Coast Hospice, and the Treasured Lands Foundation. Hartman is a graduate of Leadership Martin County Class 17 and this year was selected to participate as a member of Leadership Florida Class 30. Leadership Florida is a statewide community of leaders actively engaged in understanding and serving Florida. The organization is a respected non-partisan convener, taking the lead in training and developing leaders with a statewide, rather than parochial, view of our state’s needs.
