

Good for You

MC « SCRIPPS TREASURE COAST NEWSPAPERS « Sunday, January 9, 2011 « 13A

Dunn to host environment awards

Keep Martin Beautiful announces that Kelley Dunn, anchor of WPTV NewsChannel 5, will be Master of Ceremonies for its annual Environmental Stewardship Awards on Feb. 2.

A resident of Martin County and an active member of the community, Dunn has been sharing the local news as an anchor on WPTV since 1985.

"Each year, we work harder to increase the visibility of our community members that work to improve Martin County," said Keep Martin Beautiful President Rhonda Irons. "With such a popular and well recognized personality joining our efforts, we couldn't be more thrilled."

For more than a quarter century, Keep Martin Beautiful has been dedicated to litter prevention, beautification and community improvement, waste reduction and environmental stewardship education.

The Environmental Stewardship Awards will be 6 to 8:30 p.m. at Pipers Landing Golf & Country Club and will recognize and reward notable efforts within the community to promote environmental stewardship and innovation through education and action.

Key sponsors of the 2011 Environmental Stewardship Awards are: AT&T; Fiorella Insurance; Forest Hills Funeral Home; The Firefly Group; Sailors Return; Lauri J. Goldstein; and South Florida Water Management District.

For more information, call 772-781-1222 or e-mail info@keepmartinbeautiful.org.