Keep Martin Beautiful (KMB) president Rhonda Irons joins KMB board members Mary Kindel and Pat Yancey and KMB logistics coordinator Rob Ranieri celebrate the national recognition of the local non-profit.

Keep Martin Beautiful (KMB) was honored during the 58th annual Keep America Beautiful National Conference for distinguishing itself as an exemplary affiliate organization.

Receiving second place in the Affiliate Recognition Awards for communities with a population of 50,001-200,000, KMB was honored for its outstanding promotion of Keep America Beautiful's mission and for its success in creating a more beautiful, cleaner and improved environment through litter prevention, waste reduction, and recycling efforts.

KMB joins Keep Jacksonville Beautiful, which received a Distinguished Service Citation, as the only Florida affiliates honored during the 2011 Affiliate Recognition Awards.
