Sailfish Wealth Management Group recently announced their formation within UBS Financial Services, Inc.

The five-person team includes financial advisors Lee Boughner, Michael Dadko, and Diane Dadko as well as administrative team Barbara Meirzinger and April Pearson.

All three advisors have earned the respected designation of Certified Financial Planner, which is a rare occurrence in the financial industry.

"Individually, each of us has high-level expertise in financial planning and investment management," said vice president Michael Dadko.
