

Keep Martin Beautiful offers double dose of Extreme Martin Makeover

By staff report

Tuesday, April 13, 2010

Two areas of Martin County will undergo extreme makeovers on April 24 as part of the Great American Cleanup, coordinated locally by Keep Martin Beautiful.

The historic Golden Gate neighborhood has scheduled a litter pick-up and household hazardous waste removal on April 24 from 8 a.m. to noon, followed by a volunteer appreciation lunch provided by the Martin County Community Redevelopment Agency.

Also on April 24, Crossroads Environmental is holding a cleanup at the Rio Jensen Skate Park in Jensen Beach that will include litter pick-up and exotic and invasive plant removal from 8 a.m. to noon.

Other clean-ups include:

May 1, Keep Martin Beautiful will coordinate a cleanup at Jensen Beach from 8 to 11:30 a.m.

May 1, Halpatiokee Park in Stuart, 8 a.m.

May 22, Booker Park in Indiantown, 8 a.m.

For more information, or to participate in the cleanup, contact Keep Martin Beautiful at (772) 781-1222 or info@keepmartinbeautiful.org

